People can be influenced by the actions and attitudes of others.

It is important to do what you know is right. Having a voice and standing up for what you believe in makes a difference to the school community.

There are different communities that we belong to as well as the Communities are a group of people that live in the same place or have particular interests in common.

A democracy is where people elect leaders to be in charge of something.

An example of democracy is our school council. They listen to our views and try to make changes.

We can show compassion towards others in need by caring for them.
